ORDER STAYING CASE

The Parties' Joint Motion (Doc. 26) to Stay Case Pending Developments in the Related Securities Class Action is hereby GRANTED.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that:

1. This matter shall be STAYED and ADMINISTRATIVELY CLOSED until the earlier of thirty (30) days after: (i) the entry of an order on Defendants' anticipated motion to dismiss in the action captioned Vrakas v. United States Steel Corporation, Civil Action No. 17-579 (the "Related Securities Class Action"); (ii) a final order dismissing the Related Securities Class Action with prejudice; or (iii) until otherwise agreed to by the Parties and approved by the Court upon a motion, but subject to each party's right (a) to move the Court to lift or extend the stay and (b) to oppose such motions. All other deadlines previously established in this action are hereby VACATED.

2. Notwithstanding the stay in this matter, Plaintiffs may file a consolidated complaint during the period of the stay. Defendants shall be under no obligation to respond to any such complaint while this matter is stayed, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

3. If any discovery occurs in the Related Securities Class Action while this matter is stayed, the Parties shall meet and confer regarding the possible production and use of such discovery in this matter.

4. If documents are produced by U.S. Steel or any of the Individual Defendants in connection with any related derivative action or in response to an inspection demand or action under Title 8, Delaware Code § 220 (“§ 220”) while this matter is stayed, U.S. Steel shall provide Plaintiffs with copies of such documents and written discovery responses produced by U.S. Steel and/or the Individual Defendants, subject to the provisions of paragraph 6 below.

5. With regard to transcripts of depositions taken in any related derivative action, or in response to an inspection demand or action under § 220, U.S. Steel shall provide Plaintiffs with court reporter contact information within five (5) business days of any deposition so that Plaintiffs may request copies of deposition transcripts. As stipulated by the Parties, U.S. Steel will not oppose such requests for transcripts (or portions thereof) that have been designated as confidential by U.S. Steel under any confidentiality agreement or order governing the documents produced in the related derivative action, or in response to an inspection demand or action under § 220, subject to the provisions of paragraph 6 below.

6. As stipulated by the Parties, Plaintiffs’ right to receive documents, written discovery responses, or deposition transcripts as described above will be contingent upon their agreement to be bound by any agreement or order governing those materials in the related derivative action or in response to an inspection demand or action under § 220, with the express understanding that Plaintiffs shall be entitled to use any such documents produced to them pursuant to their Agreement (Doc. 24), or this Order, in this consolidated derivative action. As also stipulated, if Plaintiffs cannot become a party to any such agreement or order, they will enter into a separate agreement with U.S. Steel acknowledging their agreement to be bound by the terms of such agreement or order, with the express understanding that Plaintiffs shall be entitled to use any such documents produced to them pursuant to their Agreement (Doc. 24), or this Order, in this consolidated derivative action, and further will agree that their acknowledgement of the agreement or order may be enforceable in this consolidated derivative action.

7. Within thirty (30) days of the expiration of the stay set forth in paragraph 1 above, or at such other time as may be agreed by the Parties and approved by this Court upon a motion, the Parties shall meet and confer concerning a schedule for further proceedings in this matter and will propose a schedule to the Court accordingly.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
